[Bangor]— Don Hanson, co-owner and Director of Behavior Counseling and Training, at the Green Acres Kennel Shop in Bangor, recently attended a three day animal behavior continuing professional development conference at the Natural Animal Centre in Carmarthenshire, Wales, UK. Attendees from England, Israel, the Netherlands, New Zealand, South Africa, the US and Wales discussed counseling techniques and reviewed cases where Bach Flower Remedies have been used to treat behavioral issues with animals. Species discussed included cats, dogs, guinea pigs, horses, pigs and sheep. Hanson is a Bach Foundation Registered Practitioner animal specialist (BFRP), Certified Dog Behavior Consultant (CDBC) and a Certified Pet Dog Trainer (CPDT).

The Natural Animal Centre (NAC) is located on a beautiful farm in Wales. Founded by Heather and Ross Simpson, the NAC is dedicated to bringing the science of behavior to those who can do most for the welfare of animals … the guardians & trainers. They teach behavior and training classes and offer formal programs in equine, feline and canine behavior. They are currently the only site offering a course leading to registration as a Bach Foundation Registered Practitioner animal specialist.
