[Bangor]— Don Hanson, co-owner and Director of Behavior Counseling and Training at the Green Acres Kennel Shop in Bangor, has completed 30 hours of continuing education, while attending the Association of Pet Dog Trainers (APDT) annual educational conference in Atlanta, Georgia. Hanson attended sessions on the latest research in canine cognition, advanced training techniques, and business development.

The Association of Pet Dog Trainers, headquartered in Greenville, SC, is the largest organization of dog trainers and behavioral consultants in the world, with 6,000 plus members. The APDT annual conference is the largest event of its kind, with 37 speakers presenting on a wide variety of topics. Hanson previously served on the Board of the Directors of the APDT for 6 years, and was its President in 2007. He has also been a speaker at past conferences.

In business since 1965, Green Acres Kennel Shop at 1653 Union Street is a Pet Care Services Association (PCSA) accredited facility offering boarding, daycare and grooming for dogs and cats, as well as pet behavior consultations and training classes. The Green Acres retail store offers a wide variety of wholesome pet foods, treats and quality supplies. For more information, please call 945-6841 or visit www.greenacreskennel.com.
