Hanson and Dutra Attend Aggression Seminar

For Immediate Release

Monday, July 23, 2007

Contact: Don Hanson
Green Acres Kennel Shop
945-6841

[Bangor]— Don Hanson and Kate Dutra of the Green Acres Kennel Shop in Bangor have attended a two day seminar on companion animal aggression. The seminar introduced a new technique developed at the University of North Texas to work with several types of animals with various types of aggression issues. Hanson and Dutra will be looking at ways of incorporating the technique into the treatment protocols they currently use with their clients who have aggressive pets.

Hanson, the co-owner of Green Acres, is a Certified Pet Dog Trainer, Certified Dog Behavior Consultant, Bach Foundation Registered Practitioner animal specialist and Therapy Dog Evaluator. Dutra, Training Manager at Green Acres, is a Certified Pet Dog Trainer and works with Hanson on behavior consultations. Together, Hanson and Dutra co-host the Woof-Meow Show on WVOM-FM every Sunday at 8:30PM.

Green Acres Kennel Shop at 1653 Union Street is an American Boarding Kennel Association (ABKA) accredited facility offering boarding, daycare and grooming for dogs and cats, as well as pet behavior consultations and training classes. The Green Acres retail store offers a wide variety of wholesome pet foods, treats and quality supplies. In business since 1965, Green Acres has been voted the Best Kennel in the Bangor region for the past six years and this year was also voted the Best Pet Store in the Bangor area. For more information, please call 945-6841.