FREE Educational Events at Green Acres Kennel Shop in June

For Immediate Release

Thursday, May 24, 2018

Contact: Don Hanson
Green Acres Kennel Shop
945-6841

[Bangor]— Green Acres Kennel Shop in Bangor, will host the following FREE educational events for pet parents in June.

- Lyme Disease and Other Tick-Borne Infections: What You Need to Know–Tuesday, June 5th at 6:30 PM at Green Acres Kennel Shop – Lyme disease is the most common tick-borne disease and is rapidly becoming a significant health threat to both our pets and us. In this seminar, Drs. Zev and Ben Myerowitz will discuss how tick-borne diseases are affecting people throughout Maine. They will explain the diseases many symptoms, how it can be best be detected, the many coinfections that can occur with Lyme disease, and the treatment options that are available. If you are experiencing; fatigue, recurring fever, sore muscles and joints, headaches, cognitive impairment, poor sleep, mood changes, heightened allergic sensitivities, facial tingling, loss of appetite, swollen glands, night sweats, and more, you may have a tick-borne disease. Learn how you can beat this disease and feel well again. The seminar is free. For more information or to register, go to http://bit.ly/GAKS_Event_LymeTicks_5JUN18

- Using Essential Oils with Pets–Saturday, June 9th at 3 PM at Green Acres Kennel Shop – Rachael Pelletier will teach attendees how to use pure essential oils to support their pet's health and wellness. This FREE class has been developed by a veterinarian and includes handouts on how to use oils safely with pets. You will learn how these natural options can support digestive issues, ease stress and anxiousness, calm sore, achy joints and inflammation, boost immune function, repel nasty pests and more! You will also learn how to replace toxic cleaning products that can cause harm to your pet with efficient and safer alternatives. As a bonus, each attendee will make an essential oil spray to take home to ease anxiety. Rachael earned a bachelors degree in Animal Science from the University of Maine and has experience in animal care. She is excited to share her knowledge and experience in creating a safer home environment and using natural options to care for your pets. The seminar is free. For more information or to register, go to http://bit.ly/GAKS_Event_EssentialOils_9JUN18

- A screening of the documentary Pet Fooled: A Look Inside A Questionable Industry by Kohl Harrington–Tuesday, June 12th at 6:30 PM at Green Acres Kennel Shop – This film provides a critical review of the pet food industry, and it is not pretty. After watching Pet Fooled, you will realize that big pet food companies and their heart-wrenching TV ads may not be as concerned about your pet's health and wellness as they want you to believe. The screening will be followed by a question and answer period. Seating is free but limited. The seminar is free. For more information or to register, go to http://bit.ly/GAKS-Event-PetFooled

---

In business since 1965, Green Acres Kennel Shop, located at 1653 Union Street, is committed to pet-friendly, force-free pet care. We offer boarding, daycare, and grooming for dogs, as well as pet behavior consultations and group and private dog training classes. Voted Best Kennel every year since 2002, Best Pet Store every year since 2007, Best Dog Trainer every year since 2011, and Best Pet Groomer every year since 2013, the Green Acres retail store offers a wide variety of wholesome pet foods, treats, and quality supplies. In December of 2017, we were recognized by Best Businesses of America as one of the Top 10 Kennels and Top 30 Dog Trainers in New England. We are a proud member of The Pet Professional Guild. For more information, please call 945-6841 or visit www.greenacreskennel.com