[Bangor]— On Sunday, April 29th from 1PM until 4PM Green Acres Kennel Shop will hosting an open house to give people an opportunity to meet our two professional pet stylists; Paula Alexander and Amber Horr and to highlight our new expanded Sunday hours. Amber and Paula will be on hand to answer questions and will be providing free nail trims for all pets with proof of a current Rabies vaccination. Retail staff will be on hand to answer questions about pet food, products and to give kennel tours. All purchases of non-food merchandise will be 20% off during the open house.

Green Acres is now open between 8AM and 5PM on Sunday for Boarding, Grooming and retail sales.

Green Acres co-owner, Don Hanson, will also be presenting a free seminar that will focus on optimal nutrition for pets at 2PM. Hanson will discuss common myths about pet food and how to choose the best pet food for your pet while staying within your budget. He will help pet parents differentiate between the important information on a bag of pet food and the hype and will also demonstrate how to calculate the true cost of a pet food. The seminar is free but donations of cash or pet food for the Eastern Area Agency on Aging Furry Friends Food Bank will be accepted gratefully. Advanced registration is suggested.

In business since 1965, Green Acres Kennel Shop at 1653 Union Street is a Pet Care Services Association (PCSA) accredited facility offering boarding, daycare and grooming for dogs and cats, as well as pet behavior consultations and training classes. Voted Best Kennel every year since 2002, Best Pet Store every year since 2007, and Best Dog Trainer in 2011, the Green Acres retail store offers a wide variety of wholesome pet foods, treats and quality supplies.
