[Bangor]— Green Acres Kennel Shop will be offering four free screenings of the documentary Pet Fooled: A Look Inside A Questionable Industry by Kohl Harrington. This film provides a critical review of the pet food industry, and it is not pretty. After watching Pet Fooled, you will realize that big pet food companies and their heart-wrenching TV ads may not be as concerned about your pet's health and wellness as they want you to believe.

Pet Fooled addresses; regulatory lapses which led to the pet food recalls of 2007, the lack of regulatory action over chicken jerky treats that were causing dogs to die, the high-powered marketing used to promote food that is not biologically appropriate for cats or dogs, confusing but legal advertising that makes pet foods look healthier and more natural than they are, the major pet food companies problematic influence over veterinary education and the regulation of pet foods, their monopolistic control over 70% of the pet food industry, and more.

Each screening of Pet Fooled will be followed by a question and answer period. A raffle for a door prize will take place at each screening. Seating is free but limited, so please call us at 945-6841 to reserve your seat.

Screening Dates are:

- Saturday, May 13th at 3:30 PM,
- Saturday, May 20th at 9:30 AM,
- Wednesday, June 7th at 6:30 PM,
- Monday, June 26th at 6:30 PM.
