[Bangor]— Kate Dutra, Operations Manager and a Certified Professional Dog Trainer at the Green Acres Kennel Shop in Bangor, has been recertified as a professional dog trainer (CPDT-KA) by the Certification Council for Professional Dog Trainers (CCPDT), an internationally recognized certification program for professional dog trainers. Certificants must recertify with the CCPDT every three years, documenting a minimum of thirty-six hours of continuing education in CCPDT approved courses.

Dutra has been a manager and professional dog trainer at Green Acres Kennel Shop since 1992. She supervises all Green Acres staff and works with co-owner Don Hanson on pet behavior cases. Kate's extensive knowledge of animal behavior, especially body language and group play, has helped many clients and dogs in the community. She has presented several seminars on canine body language in Maine.

In business since 1965, Green Acres Kennel Shop, located at 1653 Union Street, is committed to pet friendly, force-free pet care. We offer boarding, daycare and grooming for dogs and cats, as well as pet behavior consultations and group and private dog training classes. Voted Best Kennel every year since 2002, Best Pet Store every year since 2007, Best Dog Trainer every year since 2011, and Best Pet Groomer every year since 2013, the Green Acres retail store offers a wide variety of wholesome pet foods, treats and quality supplies. We are a proud member of The Pet Professional Guild. For more information, please call 945-6841 or visit www.greenacreskennel.com.
