[Bangor]— The Woof Meow Show, a radio program about pets produced in Bangor, Maine, will be moving to a new time slot on Saturday, July 2nd. The show will now be at 9 AM, instead of 12 Noon. The Woof Meow Show is broadcast on The Pulse AM620-WZON and WKIT HD3 and streamed around the world via The Pulse's online stream at www.wzonthepulse.com and the free WZON 620 AM app. Podcasts are typically released the day of the show and can be downloaded at www.woofmeowshow.com and the Apple iTunes store.

Hosted by Don Hanson and Kate Dutra of the Green Acres Kennel Shop, The Woof Meow Show focuses on educating people about dogs, cats, their behavior, health care, nutritional needs and their relationship with their people. Don Hanson, the show's producer, and co-host states; "We love the support we are getting from Zone Radio and The Pulse AM620 and are looking forward to sharing time with you as you enjoy your Saturday morning coffee, or beverage of choice. In the coming weeks we will be talking with; 1) Dr. Dave Cloutier from the Veazie Veterinary Clinic about The AAHA Canine and Feline Behavior Management Guidelines, 2) author, speaker and dog trainer Teoti Anderson about her latest book; The Dog Behavior Problem Solver: Step-by-Step Positive Training Techniques to Correct More Than 20 Problem Behaviors, 3) Dr. Mike McCaw from the Veazie Veterinary Clinic about Respiratory Disease in Cats, and 4) Dr. Chris Barry from Kindred Spirits Veterinary Clinic about Pet Obesity."

Listeners can find a show schedule at www.woofmeowshow.com. Shows are also announced in advance on the shows FaceBook page at www.facebook.com/WoofMeowShow/
